NEW MEMBER INFORMATION

We Want You to Join Us!

Now that you know the many benefits of joining the Professional Women in Building Council, it's time to get involved.

Through Your Local Council

If there is a state/local Professional Women in Building Council in your home builders association, your council will let you know the membership dues and will process your application.

You will then become a member of your local Professional Women in Building council and the national council. Welcome! For a list of state/local councils around the country, contact WomenInBuilding@nahb.org.

Not Affiliated With a Local Council

If you do not have a local council in your area, you are able to join the NAHB Professional Women in Building Council directly. Visit www.nahb.org/joinPWB or contact NAHB Professional Women in Building staff at WomenInBuilding@nahb.org or (800) 368-5242.

WHO OUR MEMBERS ARE

WE ARE NAHB members engaged in all aspects of the building industry. We are builders, developers, remodelers, architects, suppliers, marketing experts, designers, Realtors®, mortgage lenders and trade contractors.

About 47% of privately-owned U.S. firms have women as the majority owner or equal partner — and about 885,000 of these firms are in the construction industry. CONSTRUCTION is also one of the industries with the FASTEST GROWTH in women-owned businesses.¹

Women members of NAHB comprise about 14.5% of the total membership.² 60 PERCENT of the women members head their companies, either as the sole, principal or joint owner, and 55 PERCENT hold the title of president or vice president within their firms.³

Our members have joined NAHB for business networking, developing personal and professional relationships, giving back to the industry, and pursuing educational opportunities.⁴

MISSION

The NAHB Professional Women in Building Council is the voice of women in the building industry, dedicated to promoting industry professionalism and supporting our members at the local, state and national levels by offering networking and educational opportunities, legislative awareness and outreach, and professional and personal development.

VISION

NAHB Professional Women in Building is the premier professional organization that provides strategies and solutions for professional women in the building industry. Through our various publications, awards, scholarships, seminars and programs, we provide women in the building industry with the professional advantage necessary to succeed and excel. Our members also receive well deserved recognition for their contributions to the home building industry and promotion of homeownership.

PURPOSE AND GOALS

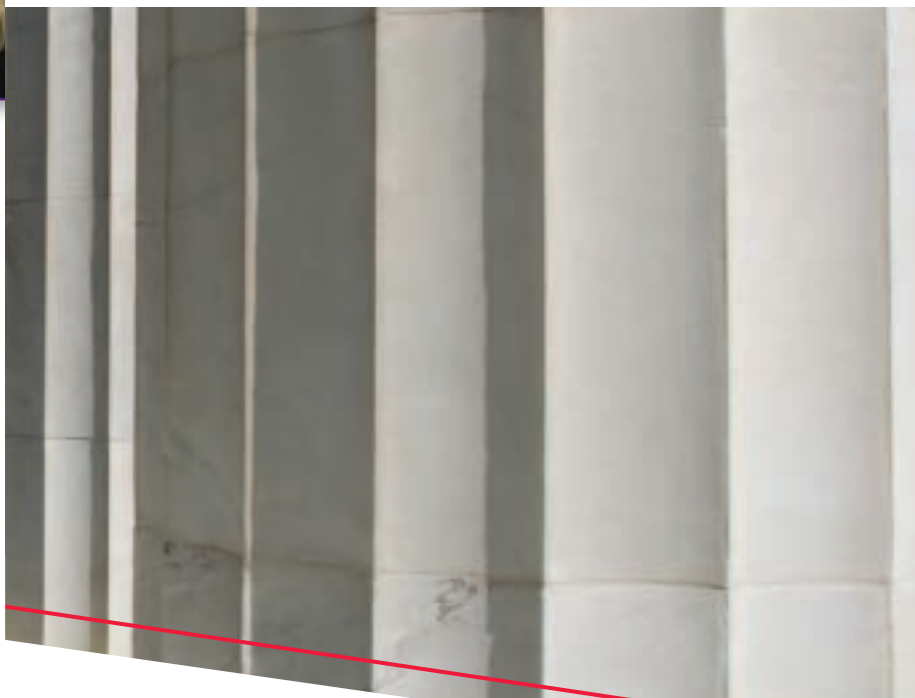

- To provide professional development resources
- To encourage career development within the industry
- To promote and support active involvement in the political and legislative process
- To promote and support community involvement
- To provide recognition of member industry achievement
- To provide resource information and support for our members, affiliated councils and other NAHB members

...Our Vision

BuilderLink

NAHB's national grassroots program advances the housing industry by connecting members of Congress to the people who matter most — their constituents.

- Be a BuilderLink Advocate and communicate to Congress through letters, emails and phone calls.
- Be a BuilderLink Ambassador and cultivate personal relationships with senators and congressmen in order to directly communicate the effects of legislation on the home building industry.

LEGISLATIVE AND POLITICAL ACTION PROGRAMS

Stay informed about legislative issues affecting our industry.

- Sign up for special legislative alerts
- Support local and state legislative efforts
- Participate in political campaigns for candidates who support the goals and initiatives of the building industry

BUILD-PAC

With more than three decades of supporting pro-housing federal candidates, BUILD-PAC stands as one of the most successful political action committees in Washington, D.C.

BUILD-PAC identifies and supports candidates with a demonstrated commitment to:

- Supporting fair government regulations
- Working for sound environmental policies
- Supporting housing finance policy that allows the building industry to participate in growing the economy
- Improving housing affordability and homeownership opportunities
- Supporting small business issues

...Our Advocacy

LEADERSHIP

Professional Women in Building provides many opportunities for leadership at the regional and national levels. Any eligible council member may run for national office. Specific requirements appear in the council Bylaws and Policy Manual.

Board of Trustees

The council is governed by a Board of Trustees that consists of Area Trustees representing the 15 NAHB Areas, Regional Trustees representing the 5 NAHB Regions, a Vice-Chair (who also serves as a Regional Trustee), the Chair and the Immediate Past Chair.

Delegates

National Delegates voice issues raised at the local council level and vote for the Regional Trustees and other officers at the International Builders' Show meeting.

Committees

National committees determine the direction of the council. Participation is open to all members through regularly scheduled conference calls, meetings and online forums.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

The following leadership development programs are offered at many meetings and are free to Professional Women in Building Council members:

- New member and local president orientation
- Leadership skills training
- Professional forums

...Our Success

Strategies for Success Student Scholarship

Through the NAHB National Housing Endowment, Professional Women in Building offers annual scholarships to women pursuing careers in the building industry. Recipients are chosen for their unique commitment to the industry and their schools.

Council and Leadership Awards

Councils and individual members are recognized for their achievements. Scholarships are awarded for council excellence in projects and programs related to Member Benefits and Services, Membership Recruitment and Retention, Legislative and Political Action, and Community Outreach. Individual member recognition is granted to the Member of the Year, Woman of the Year, Professional Women in Building Executive Officer of the Year, and to members not affiliated with a local or state council (National Member of the Year).

Membership Recruitment Awards

The Professional Women in Building Spike Program provides recognition for member recruiters whose efforts throughout the year bring in new members to the council and its affiliates. Councils demonstrating membership growth and retention, as determined by membership data, also receive scholarships for local council programs and to grant to students in their communities.

Information on all award and grant programs is available at www.nahb.org/PWBawards.

Funding for Building Hope and Strategies for Success Scholarships is provided by contributions from individual members, councils and corporate partners.

...Helping you succeed in the building industry today.

PROFESSIONAL WOMEN IN BUILDING PROGRAMS

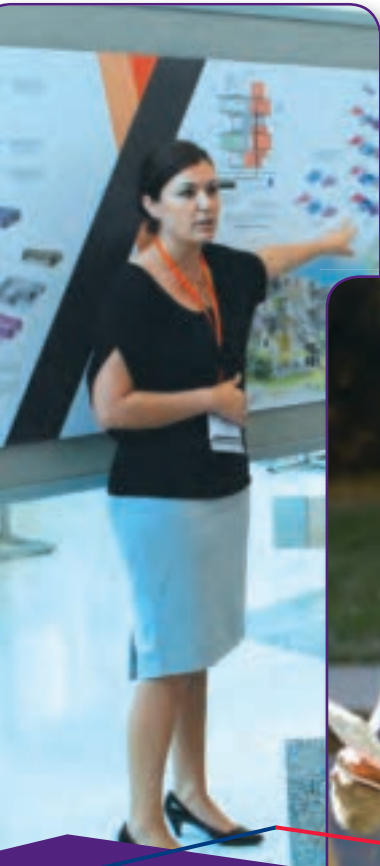

Programs

The NAHB Professional Women in Building Council offers unique program resources for all members and councils. Our involvement in education, community service activities and member support is the keystone of the council's mission.

Scholarship Opportunities

Thanks to its generous sponsors, the council is able to offer scholarships to students in the building industry and continuing education grants to its members. In addition, members compete for travel grants to the International Builders' Show.
